

THE ARTIST AND HIS PATH

Michael Moebius, born in 1968 in Pirna, Germany, stands as a beacon in contemporary art, known for blending pop culture with exquisite fine art technique. His bubblegum series, featuring icons like Marilyn Monroe and Audrey Hepburn, cleverly mixes realism with a playful touch. This series has made a significant mark in the realm of copyright law. Moebius' work led to a groundbreaking moment where he was awarded a precedent setting judgement, setting a new standard for how art can be protected and valued in the face of widespread imitation. He is the first artist worldwide who wins over 100 Million US-Dollar in a monumental lawsuit against hundreds of foreign counterfeiters for his stunning bubble artworks.

LEGENDS BLOWING BUBBLES COLLECTION

In an extraordinary melding of artistic mediums, Moebius has collaborated with the esteemed Meissen Porcelain company established 1710, the inventor of European Porcelain over 314 years ago, and now creating unique, hand-made sculptures in modern art. These pieces, in the form of busts of Marilyn Monroe and Audrey Hepburn blowing bubblegums (Handmade and mouthblown by worldwide renowned Moser Glassworks), represent a fusion of traditional craftsmanship with modern pop sensibilities. The work is in process since February 2023, needing over one year to finish one sculpture from clay model to porcelain piece. Made with exclusive craftsmanship, each bust is unique and limited to 10 pieces worldwide. This extraordinary cooperation is complemented by four MEISSEN mugs with Marilyn Monroe and Audrey Hepburn decor.
